Dealer notes

Introducing a heavy-duty powerhouse built to conquer the toughest jobs: the 2009 Chevrolet Silverado 3500HD 4WD Ext Cab 157.5" SRW Work Truck. Finished in a sophisticated Graystone Metallic exterior and paired with a practical, durable Black interior, this single rear wheel (SRW) truck strikes the perfect balance between professional utility and rugged style. The Extended Cab configuration offers versatile cabin space that is ideal for extra gear or crew members, making this highly dependable pickup a premier choice for demanding work sites and daily operations alike. When it comes to capability, this heavy-duty workhorse delivers outstanding performance designed for demanding towing and hauling tasks. Equipped with a robust Four Wheel Drive (4WD) system, this 2009 Chevrolet Silverado 3500HD is engineered to maintain maximum traction and control across challenging terrains, muddy job sites, and inclement weather. Powered by a formidable 6.6L 8-cylinder engine, this truck offers the structural integrity and heavy-duty utility required to handle substantial payloads and heavy trailers with absolute confidence. This particular model is outfitted with the legendary Duramax 6.6L Turbo Diesel V8 engine, seamlessly paired with the highly respected Allison 1000 6-speed automatic electronically controlled transmission for smooth, reliable power delivery under load. Designed to perform in even the harshest winter climates, it also features a built-in engine block heater and a heavy-duty dual 730 cold-cranking amps maintenance-free battery system to ensure confident starts every single morning. If you are looking for an uncompromising, job-ready truck that is built to endure, this 2009 Chevrolet Silverado 3500HD is ready to get to work for you.
