Dealer notes

Experience the passion and elegance of Italian open-air motoring with this striking 2002 Maserati M138 Spyder. Dressed in a sophisticated Midnight Blue exterior, this classic roadster captures immediate attention with its fluid body lines and iconic trident badging. Paired with a warm Brown tan leather interior, this drop-top grand tourer presents a breathtaking color combination that perfectly balances timeless luxury with athletic styling for discerning exotic car buyers. At the heart of this 2002 Maserati M138 Spyder is a high-revving, naturally aspirated 4.2-liter V8 engine that delivers thrilling acceleration and an intoxicating exhaust note. Built around a front mid-engine, rear-wheel-drive architecture, the M138 platform offers exceptional balance and sharp handling dynamics. Whether carving through winding back roads or cruising along the highway, its performance-engineered chassis provides an authentic, engaging sports car experience. Inside the cabin, the rich tan leather upholstery surrounds the driver and passenger in handcrafted luxury, featuring supportive seating and a driver-focused control layout designed for spirited grand touring. Equipped with a retractable soft top for effortless open-air freedom, this Italian convertible delivers an uncompromised blend of style, sound, and open-road excitement.
