Dealer notes

If you are searching for a versatile, work-ready commercial vehicle that combines exceptional capability with everyday practicality, this 2018 Ford Transit Van T-250 is built to deliver. Finished in a clean, professional Oxford White exterior over a durable Charcoal interior, this 148-inch wheelbase model features a medium roof configuration and a convenient sliding right-hand door for easy side access. Designed to meet the demands of modern business, this full-size cargo van offers the ideal balance of vertical headroom and maneuverability, making it a standout choice for contractors, delivery services, and mobile professionals alike.Under the hood, this T-250 is powered by a dependable 3.7L 6-cylinder engine that delivers smooth, reliable performance for all your transport needs. Built on a heavy-duty 9,000 lbs. GVWR platform, it features a 3.73 limited-slip axle ratio to optimize traction and power delivery when hauling heavy equipment or navigating slick road conditions. To ensure your investment stays protected through rigorous daily use, the cargo hold comes equipped with the full-height Load Area Protection Package, safeguarding the interior walls from scratches, dents, and shifted cargo during transit.Inside the cabin, driver efficiency and convenience take center stage. Staying connected and informed on the road is effortless with the AM/FM stereo with single CD and SYNC system, while cruise control with an integrated message center helps minimize fatigue on extended highway drives. Parking and maneuvering in tight loading zones or urban job sites are made significantly safer and easier thanks to the built-in reverse sensing system. Combining proven Ford durability with practical work-ready features, this 2018 Ford Transit T-250 is ready to upgrade your business operations today.
