Dealer notes

FOR SALE: 2017 Honda Civic LX Sedan ?? Stop pouring your hard-earned cash into the gas tank and start putting it back in your wallet. Available right now at Ohio Motor Group in Steubenville, this 2017 Honda Civic Sedan 4D LX is priced at just $12,980-but honestly, with fuel mileage this good, this car is basically going to pay for itself. Seriously, do the math. Powered by a hyper-efficient 2.0L I4 engine paired with a smooth automatic transmission, this Civic doesn't just pass gas stations; it aggressively ignores them. It sips fuel so slowly that you'll start forgetting which side your gas cap is on. If you drive a normal commute, the money you save on fuel every month compared to a gas-guzzler could practically cover your auto payment. It's not just a car; it's a financial loophole on wheels. Why this Civic makes total cents (and dollars): * The Math Check: Killer fuel economy means fewer fill-ups and more cash in your pocket. * The Price Tag: Only $12,980 for a modern, reliable, and sharp 2017 model. * The Comforts: Spacious 4-door sedan layout, daily-driver reliability, and legendary Honda longevity. Stop paying premium prices just to commute. Drive something that works for your wallet instead of against it. ?? Test drive it today at Ohio Motor Group in Steubenville!
