Dealer notes

Unbossed and engineered for the open road, the 2026 Subaru Outback Wilderness AWD stands out in an exclusive Geyser Blue finish that perfectly complements its rugged off-road lineage. Designed for outdoor enthusiasts who demand authentic trail capability without sacrificing everyday practicality, this midsize crossover wagon delivers an unbeatable blend of style and versatility. Whether you are commuting through unpredictable weather or escaping to remote backcountry trails, the Outback Wilderness commands attention and delivers total confidence behind the wheel.Under the hood, a responsive 2.4L 4-cylinder engine works in tandem with Subaru's legendary All-Wheel Drive system to provide robust power, impressive towing capacity, and supreme traction across mud, snow, and gravel. Built to handle rougher paths, this adventure-ready utility vehicle comes fitted with durable splash guards to help protect the bodywork from stones and road debris. Exceptional ground clearance and off-road tuning ensure the 2026 Subaru Outback Wilderness conquers challenging terrain with ease while maintaining a smooth, composed ride on the highway.Inside the cabin, the Slate Black interior combines heavy-duty durability with high-end comfort features designed for long-distance trips. Drivers and passengers will appreciate ventilated seats, an expansive moonroof, integrated navigation, and a surround view monitor that makes navigating tight obstacles effortless. Thoughtful visibility technology completes the package, including interior and exterior auto-dimming mirrors with headlight glare protection, an auto-dimming rearview mirror with compass and HomeLink, and auto-dimming exterior mirrors featuring approach lights for added convenience in dark surroundings. Experience the ultimate balance of comfort and utility in the 2026 Subaru Outback Wilderness AWD today.
