Dealer notes

Built to handle the demands of hard work, this 2016 Ford Econoline Commercial Cutaway E-350 Super Duty 138" DRW offers an exceptional foundation for your business operations. Finished in a professional Oxford White exterior, this commercial cutaway combines legendary Ford durability with the versatile platform required for specialized upfitting. Whether you need to build out a delivery van, service vehicle, or custom utility box, this dual-rear-wheel platform delivers the heavy-duty strength and dependability fleet buyers require.At the core of this vehicle's performance is the dependable 5.4L EFI Triton V8 engine, engineered to provide steady torque and reliable power under heavy loads. The 138-inch wheelbase and dual rear wheel (DRW) configuration ensure superior weight distribution and stability on the road. Designed specifically for commercial capability, it features integrated frame pucks (isolators) for improved body installation and structural integrity, alongside a Class I trailer towing package to easily handle additional equipment and hauling needs.Inside the cabin, practical functionality supports productivity throughout the workday. Equipped with cruise control to minimize driver fatigue on extended highway routes, this E-350 Super Duty also includes convenient user-defined switches that allow for seamless integration and control of auxiliary equipment or aftermarket accessories. Ready to tackle tough jobs from day one, this 2016 Ford Econoline Commercial Cutaway is a smart, reliable investment to elevate your commercial fleet.
