Dealer notes

Command the road with authority in this stunning 2020 GMC Sierra 1500 4WD Double Cab 147" SLE. Finished in an eye-catching Quicksilver Metallic exterior, this full-size pickup blends a bold, athletic profile with the practical spatial layout of a Double Cab. Inside, the Jet Black interior offers a spacious and functional cabin environment crafted for both workday demands and weekend escapes. This impressive truck delivers the ideal combination of professional-grade utility, head-turning style, and everyday versatility. Under the hood, this 2020 GMC Sierra 1500 is powered by a muscle-bound 5.3L EcoTec3 V8 engine, delivering reliable performance and raw strength whenever you press the accelerator. Paired with a robust Four Wheel Drive drivetrain, this pickup is engineered to tackle challenging weather and off-road trails with complete confidence. Capability is further elevated by a heavy-duty locking rear differential and aggressive LT265/70R17C all-terrain blackwall tires, providing superior traction on unpredictable surfaces. Whether you are transporting heavy equipment or hauling extra cargo using the dedicated Trailering Package, this Sierra is built to handle the job. Rounding out its impressive suite of features, this SLE model brings added comfort and convenience to your daily routine with the integrated Remote Start Package, allowing you to prepare the Jet Black cabin temperature before stepping inside. Every detail of this vehicle is designed to optimize durability, driver confidence, and utility.
