Dealer notes

Dressed in sleek Black, this 2025 Land Rover Range Rover Sport brings serious presence to the SUV worldequal parts refined and ready. Under the hood, a 3.0L inline-6 mild-hybrid (P360) teams up with auto stop-start and a hybrid starter generator to deliver smooth, confident power, while full-time AWD and an electronic transfer case keep traction feeling effortless whether youre heading downtown or taking the long way home.The ride is where it really shows off: predictive adaptive suspension with driver-selectable height and auto-leveling helps it stay composed, poised, and impressively comfortable. When the road turns steep, youll appreciate hill hold and hill descent control, plus strong regenerative braking that feels reassuring in all the right moments. Need capability? Towing equipment with trailer sway control is on hand for weekends that involve more than groceries.Inside, the vibe is modern luxurypanoramic glass overhead for both rows, 12-way power front seating, and a power tilt/telescoping steering column that makes it easy to dial in your perfect position. A 15-speaker audio system, Bluetooth connectivity, and real-time traffic keep every drive entertaining and informed.Safety and awareness are well covered with adaptive cruise control with steering assist, blind spot assist, emergency braking, driver monitoring, and an aerial view camera system that makes tight spaces feel simple.And yesa CARFAX report is available for added peace of mind.
