Dealer notes

Build your business on a proven foundation with the 2021 Freightliner Sprinter Cab Chassis 3500XD Standard Roof V6 170". Designed to serve as the ultimate platform for custom commercial upfitting, this heavy-duty workhorse delivers the strength, adaptability, and dependability demanding industries require. Finished in a professional Arctic White exterior, this cab chassis offers a clean, professional canvas for your company’s branding while providing the rugged framework needed to support specialized utility bodies, flatbeds, or custom cargo configurations.Under the hood, this commercial chassis is driven by a capable 3.0L 6-cylinder engine paired with a dual rear wheel (DRW) rear-wheel-drive configuration. The 3500XD extra-heavy-duty rating combined with the extended 170-inch wheelbase provides exceptional chassis stability and load-bearing capacity, ensuring heavy payloads are handled safely and efficiently. Whether navigating demanding job sites or transporting equipment over long highway stretches, the rear-wheel-drive DRW setup maximizes traction and rear-axle weight distribution for confident, dependable daily operation.Inside, the functional cabin features a practical Black interior built for durability, driver efficiency, and easy maintenance during rigorous workdays. The standard roof height maintains an aerodynamic profile while offering easy cab access and excellent forward visibility. Engineered to support severe-duty commercial applications while keeping your operation running efficiently, the 2021 Freightliner Sprinter Cab Chassis 3500XD 170" DRW represents a smart, long-term investment ready to power your business to the next level.
