Dealer notes

Command the road and tackle demanding jobs with this impressive 2008 Ford Super Duty F-250 SRW 4WD SuperCab 142" XLT. Finished in a sophisticated Dark Shadow Gray Metallic exterior, this heavy-duty pickup combines iconic Ford toughness with a commanding presence on the job site or the open highway. Built to deliver uncompromising strength and dependability, this single-rear-wheel Super Duty is the ideal choice for buyers who require real-world capability alongside versatile daily functionality.Under the hood, this pickup is powered by the formidable 6.4L OHV V8 Turbo-Diesel Power Stroke engine, engineered to produce the massive torque and pulling power necessary for heavy hauling and trailer towing. Paired with a robust Four-Wheel Drive (4WD) system, this F-250 provides outstanding traction and control across challenging terrain, inclement weather, and rugged worksites. The 142-inch wheelbase configuration ensures a stable chassis foundation, offering a well-balanced footprint that maximizes both payload capacity and confidence behind the wheel.Inside, the versatile SuperCab layout provides easy cabin access and flexible seating, styled in a warm Beige interior color scheme. As an XLT trim, this truck balances rugged utility with practical interior comfort, offering a user-friendly environment designed to keep you comfortable through long workdays and highway trips alike. Whether you are looking for a powerful workhorse for heavy utility tasks or a capable 4x4 tow vehicle, this 2008 Ford Super Duty F-250 SRW delivers the proven performance and durability you demand.
