Dealer notes

Step into the future of driving with this sleek 2018 Tesla Model 3 Long Range Battery RWD. Finished in a striking Silver exterior color, this modern electric sedan perfectly blends refined aesthetic appeal with cutting-edge EV innovation. Designed for drivers seeking efficiency, sophisticated design, and a zero-emissions footprint, this Model 3 offers an elevated driving experience that continues to define the modern electric vehicle landscape.Delivering instant electric torque directly to the rear wheels, the single-motor Rear-Wheel Drive (RWD) setup provides a responsive, engaging ride with sharp handling and smooth acceleration. Powered purely by an advanced electric powertrain, this Model 3 utilizes its Long Range battery pack to maximize distance between charges while completely eliminating the need for gasoline. Without the bulk of a traditional internal combustion engine, the vehicle achieves exceptional aerodynamic efficiency and balanced weight distribution for an effortlessly quiet and capable highway cruising experience.Inside, the cabin embodies a modern, minimalist philosophy centered around an intuitive 15-inch touchscreen display that manages vehicle settings, navigation, and media. Occupants benefit from a spacious interior design enhanced by versatile cargo solutions, including both a rear trunk and a convenient front trunk (frunk) for maximum daily utility. Combining timeless Silver styling, low ownership costs, and long-range electric capability, this 2018 Tesla Model 3 Long Range Battery RWD represents an outstanding opportunity to upgrade your daily drive—schedule your test drive today.
