Dealer notes

This 2018 Chrysler Pacifica Touring L makes school drop-offs, grocery runs, and family road trips easier with its spacious three-row interior. A 3.6-liter Pentastar V6 pairs with a nine-speed automatic transmission for smooth acceleration around town and on the highway. Power sliding side doors make it easy for passengers to get in and out, even in tight parking spaces. The Touring L trim features leather-trimmed seating and heated front seats. Second- and third-row Stow ’n Go seats fold into the floor when you need extra room for luggage, sports gear, or larger purchases. With the seats upright, there’s still space behind the third row for everyday cargo. A rearview camera helps you see behind the van when backing out of a driveway or parking spot. The flexible seating makes it easy to switch from carrying the whole family to hauling bulky items. Visit MG Motors in Tucson to see this Pacifica Touring L in person and take it for a test drive.
