Dealer notes

If you are searching for a dependable midsize pickup that combines everyday utility with clean styling, this 2007 GMC Canyon 2WD Ext Cab 125.9" SLE1 is a standout choice. Finished in a crisp Summit White exterior, this extended cab truck offers the ideal balance of manageable road dimensions and real-truck versatility for work or personal use. Designed to handle daily commutes and weekend projects alike, the Canyon delivers classic GMC styling in a practical package built for drivers who need reliable functionality without the bulk of a full-size vehicle.Under the hood, this 2007 GMC Canyon is powered by a 3.7L 5-cylinder engine, providing an efficient mix of horsepower and torque tailored for hauling gear and confident passing power. The two-wheel-drive setup paired with the 125.9-inch wheelbase ensures smooth, responsive handling on paved roads and highway cruises while optimizing overall fuel economy. Whether you are loading up the cargo bed or navigating tight urban streets, this Canyon’s powertrain and rear-wheel-drive configuration deliver straightforward, dependable performance for your everyday driving needs.Inside, the cabin features a durable Dark Pewter interior designed for comfort and day-to-day usability. The extended cab layout provides convenient additional space behind the front seats, perfect for extra passenger seating or keeping valuable tools and cargo secured out of the weather. As an SLE1 trim, this truck delivers a focused, comfortable driving environment that emphasizes utility, build quality, and straightforward operation.
