Dealer notes

F40 Motorsports is proud to offer this 2004 Factory Turbocharged Mazdaspeed MX5. Its 1 of 5000 built during 2004 - 2005. It\'s an adult owned Southern car and a Show/Club car since new.Long term ownership from a previous Air Force Jet Mechanic. He installed all of the aftermarket improvements to the car. He added the things that Mazda should have but didn\'t because of pricing restraints. -Factory turbo-One of 5428 Mazdaspeed MX5s produced from 2004 - 2005-Timing belt and water pump replaced-Original Paint, Interior & Convertible top. All in excellent condition!-Southern car, no rust ever-Clean title in hand This is a Mazdaspeed that thinks it’s a Ferrari.This very special Mazdaspeed has both Enhanced Handling & Substantially Increased Power that will allow you to diss other "Sports Cars" in fast, tight corners. Professionally Installed Enhancements: -FM Big Enchilada Upgrade Kit including Intake, Turbo Smart Diverter/Boost Adjuster and Complete Exhaust-949 Xida Adjustable Dampening & Height Coilovers that can be adjusted to float over bumps or dialed in for extreme handling.-Big Fuel Injectors with Performance ECU-949 6UL 15" wheels-3.63 Gearing-Shifter rebuilt with Brass Bushings for more precise Shifts.-Redline Synthetic Fluid in Transmission and Rear Differential.- Mobil 1 in the Crank Case.-FM Steel Braided Brake Hoses. DOT 4 Brake Fluid.-Magnecore 8.5mm Spark Plug Wires. Mazdaspeed – Professionally Installed Performance Enhancements : The Flyin\' Miata "Big Enchilada" kit is no longer sold as a single, combined package by Flyin\' Miata. It has been discontinued for several years, primarily because it originally included a custom turbo compressor upgrade that is no longer offered. However, you can estimate its legacy cost and modern alternative route: ••F†R 6Æ÷6W7B ÇFW native: The scaled-down version, "The Little Enchilada" kit, is listed on the Flyin\' Miata Store for $3,040.98. It includes the Intake, Downpipe, Midpipe, Exhaust, Throttle Body Inlet Pipe, and Intercooler. ••F†R Legacy Piece-Together Cost: When it was available, the Big Enchilada added upgraded Fuel Injectors and Electronic Tuning Elements to the Little Enchilada hardware. Re-creating the full package today by purchasing the Hardware Kit (alongside an independent Engine Management Unit) typically costs around $5,000. ••F†R ‡–G a Nemesis sold by Flyin\' Miata, a brand-new unit retailed for $1,995. Unlike piggyback units (like the XEDE), the Hydra was a true standalone ECU that provided comprehensive engine control. It allowed Enthusiasts to increase the restrictive Factory Rev Limit (6500 RPM).•• Installation Labor estimate for the enhancements listed above : + $3000 Dyno results for a 2004 Mazdaspeed with the Flyin’ Miata Big Enchilada Kit : Max Power : 222 WHP Max Torque : 229 WTQBig Enchilada from Flyin’ Miata with 93 octane tune by Jeremy at FM. Dyno at sea level. Price does not include $0 processing fee
