Dealer notes

The 2012 Ford Super Duty F-250 SRW 4WD Reg Cab 137" XL is a robust and reliable powerhouse, built to handle demanding jobs and adventurous terrains. Its Oxford White exterior exudes a professional and clean appearance, perfect for both work and leisure. Complemented by an interior color of Steel, the cabin is designed to be both functional and comfortable, offering a straightforward yet inviting environment. Powered by a formidable 6.2L 8-cylinder engine, this truck delivers impressive performance, ensuring you have the muscle needed for towing and hauling heavy loads. The 4.30 axle ratio with an electronic locking rear axle provides superior traction, enhancing control on difficult terrains. Coupled with a Four Wheel Drive (4WD) drivetrain and electric shift-on-the-fly transfer case, this truck can easily navigate through rough and uncertain landscapes. Additionally, the vehicle is equipped with practical features such as an AM/FM stereo with a CD/MP3 player to enjoy your favorite tunes while on the road. Cruise control comes standard, offering ease and comfort during long drives. For those who frequently tow, the included trailer brake controller is an invaluable asset, allowing for enhanced safety and control when towing heavy loads. All these features are neatly packed into the Reg Cab 137" XL style, making this F-250 a commendable choice for those seeking both capability and convenience in their next truck.
