Dealer notes

Whether you are expanding your business fleet or building a tailored commercial vehicle, this 2016 Ford Econoline Commercial Cutaway E-350 Super Duty 138" DRW offers the perfect foundation for heavy-duty success. Finished in crisp Oxford White, this dual-rear-wheel chassis is built to handle tough jobs with complete reliability. Its versatile platform and rugged construction make it an exceptional choice for upfitters and commercial operators seeking long-lasting value and proven capability on the job site.At the heart of this workhorse is the reliable 5.4L EFI Triton V8 engine, delivering solid 8-cylinder performance to tackle demanding workloads. Equipped with a 4.10 axle ratio and dual rear wheels, this E-350 Super Duty maximizes low-end traction and stability for hauling high-capacity payloads. The 138-inch wheelbase provides an ideal balance of maneuverability and body-mounting space, complemented by frame pucks (isolators) that help dampen vibration and secure the transition between the chassis and your upfitted body.Inside, the functional cab features a practical Medium Flint interior designed for straightforward commercial use. Drivers will appreciate the convenience of cruise control during longer highway routes, while the b-pillar trim kit ensures a clean, professional finish between the cab and the custom rear body section. Built to deliver long-term service and productivity, this 2016 Ford Econoline Commercial Cutaway E-350 Super Duty 138" DRW brings essential capability and power to any commercial fleet.
