Dealer notes

1984 Chevrolet C30 Squarebody Dually. This extremely solid West Coast truck has an unusual and distinctive appearance, featuring a 1980-and-older bed with the classic racetrack trim carried through, paired with an 80s-model cab. It even retains all of the hard-to-find stainless trim on the dual rear fenders, along with undamaged fiberglass dually fenders. Even the inside of the bed is exceptionally nice. We\'ve never personally seen this older-style bed and trim combination carried through on an 80s-model truck quite like this before, but it definitely gives it a unique look, and there\'s absolutely nothing wrong with the way it turned out! This truck has been through our service and inspection process, checks out well, and hits the road properly. All lights are functioning, including the dome light. The windows have been freshly tinted, and the truck has been slightly lowered. We have intentionally stopped our reconditioning process at this point, but we\'d be more than happy to take it further for the next owner. Potential next steps could include a spray-in bedliner, dash replacement, gauge rebuild, or possibly lowering it a little further and installing an aftermarket set of 22-, 24-, or 26-inch wheels. The price reflects the truck exactly as it is shown and currently sits. If additional work or modifications are performed, the price will obviously reflect those additions accordingly. This is an opportunity to own an exceptionally solid, true West Coast truck. We personally shipped this truck in ourselves and can verify its previous location, and it has the remarkably well-preserved undercarriage and body you\'d hope to find in a genuine West Coast Squarebody. A unique combination with plenty of potential, ready for its next owner! Price does not include $0 processing fee
