Dealer notes

The 2013 Kia Sportage LX FWD is a stylish, practical compact SUV that pairs a 176-horsepower 2.4-liter four-cylinder engine with a smooth six-speed automatic transmission. Front-wheel drive keeps it well suited to everyday commuting, and its EPA-estimated 21 mpg city and 30 mpg highway make it a sensible choice for its class. The cabin offers useful space for passengers and cargo—about 26 cubic feet behind the rear seats, expanding to roughly 55 with them folded—while the LX trim delivers the essentials in a comfortable, easy-to-drive package.
