Dealer notes

Dressed in sleek Black, this 2026 Ford F-150 is the kind of used truck that looks ready for a night downtown and a weekend off the grid. Under the hood, its 3.5L V6 EcoBoost gasoline engine brings strong, confident power, and with driver-selectable modes plus a smart 4WD system and electronic transfer case, its built to handle changing roads without breaking a sweat. Got gear, toys, or a trailer in the plan? The Class IV towing setup with sway control and trailer wiring helps keep things composed, while the regular box and integrated storage make everyday hauling feel effortless. With a big 36-gallon fuel tank, its also set up for longer stretches between fill-ups. Inside, its practical and comfortable: dual-zone automatic climate control, a heated leatherette steering wheel, and a clean, modern cabin with smart storage throughout. Tech is along for the ride too, with connected navigation and streaming audio, plus clear camera coverage to help when maneuvering in tight spots. Safety-minded features like blind spot monitoring, cross-traffic alert with reverse brake assist, forward collision mitigation, and front/rear parking sensors add extra confidence in traffic and parking lots.
