Dealer notes

If you are searching for an ultra-reliable, low-mileage commercial chassis ready for your next custom build, this 2017 Ford E-Series Cutaway E-450 DRW is an incredible find. Boasting just 15,071 miles on the odometer and a clean Carfax 1-Owner history, this heavy-duty workhorse offers the ultimate clean-slate foundation for your business or fleet upfit needs. Finished in a classic Oxford White exterior, this commercial cutaway combines proven Ford dependability with exceptionally low wear, making it an ideal candidate for box truck conversions, service bodies, or specialized commercial applications.Under the hood, this heavy-duty platform is powered by the muscular 6.8L EFI Triton V10 engine, delivering robust 10-cylinder power to handle heavy loads with total confidence. Paired with a Rear-Wheel Drive system and a Dual Rear Wheel (DRW) configuration, the E-450 provides impressive stability, traction, and weight distribution for demanding towing and hauling tasks. Built on a generous 176" wheelbase, it supplies the essential structural frame length and strength required to support large-capacity upfits while maintaining predictable road handling.Inside the cab, the durable Gray interior offers a practical, driver-focused layout designed for everyday commercial utility. With its exceptionally low mileage, documented single-owner provenance, and legendary Ford commercial chassis strength, this 2017 Ford E-Series Cutaway E-450 DRW 176" WB represents a rare combination of ready-to-work capability and long-term value.
