Dealer notes

Experience all-electric driving in this 2018 Tesla Model 3 Long Range Sedan 4D at MG Motors in Tucson, Arizona. Its electric powertrain delivers quick, smooth acceleration when merging onto the freeway or pulling away from a stoplight. The Long Range battery configuration makes this Model 3 a practical choice for daily commutes and weekend drives. Inside, the minimalist cabin puts navigation, climate settings, and media controls on a large central touchscreen. The glass roof lets in natural light and gives the cabin an open feel. Four doors and seating for five make it easy to bring family or friends along. A rear trunk and front storage compartment give you separate spaces for groceries, luggage, or charging accessories. You can charge at home with compatible equipment or plug in at Tesla Supercharger locations on the road. Visit MG Motors to see this Model 3 in person and take it for a test drive.
