Dealer notes

Maximize your business efficiency and capability with this versatile 2018 Ford Transit Van T-250. Finished in a clean Oxford White exterior, this medium-roof cargo van features a 148-inch wheelbase that delivers the ideal balance of extensive cargo height and maneuverability. Built to serve as an exceptional mobile workstation for contractors, delivery fleets, and tradespeople, this T-250 model offers the reliable space and professional presence needed to take your operations to the next level.Under the hood, a dependable 3.7L 6-cylinder engine provides the smooth, responsive power required to haul heavy tools and materials. With a robust 9,000 lbs GVWR, this workhorse is engineered to manage heavy payload demands without compromise. Performance and capability are further enhanced by the 3.73 limited-slip axle ratio, which delivers superior traction on slick surfaces and loose terrain. Side loading is quick and effortless thanks to the sliding right-hand door, allowing for efficient access to your equipment wherever the job takes you.Inside, the durable Pewter interior is built to withstand rigorous daily use, featuring front and rear vinyl floor covering for simple cleanup and long-lasting protection. Drive comfortably on long highway trips using the built-in cruise control with message center, while the reverse sensing system helps navigate tight parking spaces and busy job sites with ease. To keep the interior looking great and protect the body from shifting cargo, this van includes the full-height load area protection package. Well-equipped and work-ready, this 2018 Ford Transit T-250 is the perfect addition to drive your business forward.
