Dealer notes

1998 Harley-Davidson Fat Boy - Custom One-Owner Motorcycle | Under 18,000 Miles Offered by Carolina Classic Cars, this 1998 Harley-Davidson Fat Boy is a true one-owner motorcycle with less than 18,000 original miles and is custom through and through. This bike was purchased new at Cape Fear Harley-Davidson and has been carefully owned and tastefully upgraded, making it a standout example of a classic Fat Boy with personalized craftsmanship. This Harley features a custom 6-gallon fuel tank finished in custom paint with hand-laid graphics, with artwork completed by a respected custom shop in Archdale, North Carolina. The bike is equipped with a Screamin' Eagle air intake system, enhancing both performance and sound, and is paired with long aftermarket side exhaust pipes that give it an aggressive stance and unmistakable Harley presence. Additional upgrades include aftermarket chrome front forks, a high-torque starter solenoid, and a chrome oil tank, all adding to the bike's performance, reliability, and show-quality appearance. The riding position is enhanced with beach bar handlebars, offering comfort and classic cruiser style. Lighting has been upgraded with a three-way lighting system, and the bike also features custom extended fenders, further setting it apart from a standard Fat Boy. This motorcycle comes complete with two seats -- the original factory seat as well as a Corbin seat, giving the next owner options for comfort and style. One-owner motorcycle Under 18,000 miles Clean North Carolina title Tastefully customized with quality components This is a rare opportunity to own a well-documented, one-owner custom 1998 Harley-Davidson Fat Boy that blends classic Harley heritage with thoughtful custom upgrades.
