Dealer notes

CLEAN TITLE WITH TOTAL LOSS HISTORY – 2024 Ford Expedition Max Limited 4x4 – 47,686 Miles – ONE OWNER – 302A High Package – Heavy-Duty Trailer Tow – Dark Matter Gray This 2024 Ford Expedition Max Limited 4x4 combines full-size luxury, extended-length versatility, and serious capability in one exceptionally well-equipped SUV. Finished in sophisticated Dark Matter Gray over a rich Mahogany interior, the MAX configuration provides additional cargo room behind the third row while maintaining the premium comfort expected from the Limited trim. Power comes from Ford's 3.5L EcoBoost V6, paired with a 4x4 drivetrain for confident year-round performance. This example is equipped with the desirable Equipment Group 302A High Package and Heavy-Duty Trailer Tow Package, making it an excellent choice for larger families, road trips, and towing. Vehicle History & Condition This Expedition has a clean title with total loss history following previous damage to the front end and left-rear area. We believe in being completely transparent about its history: 47,686 Miles ONE OWNER Washington, Michigan Vehicle Front-End & Left-Rear Damage History NO Structural Damage Airbags Previously Deployed Airbags Replaced with OEM Airbag Components Approximately 27 Months of Factory Powertrain Warranty Remaining, subject to Ford's applicable terms and eligibility The previous collision did result in airbag deployment. The affected airbags were replaced using OEM airbag components designed to operate with the vehicle's factory supplemental restraint system. The vehicle retains a clean title, while the previous total-loss history is fully disclosed and reflected in the price. Why This Expedition Stands Out The Expedition MAX is especially desirable for buyers who need genuine three-row passenger space without sacrificing cargo capacity. The extended body provides considerably more usable room behind the third row than the standard-length Expedition. This Limited is also far from a basic configuration. The 302A High Package adds desirable premium equipment, while the Heavy-Duty Trailer Tow Package enhances its capability for buyers planning to tow a boat, camper, or trailer. Add the Mahogany interior, Dark Matter Gray exterior, 4x4, and EcoBoost power, and this is an excellent configuration for someone who needs one SUV to handle family transportation, long-distance travel, and towing.
