Dealer notes

2006 Ford F-150 Crew Cab 4x4 Pickup This truck is being sold AS-IS. Please read the full description. This F-150 was owned by one of our repeat customers and was being driven daily until it was traded in for a newer F-150. The truck runs and drives, but it is being sold AS-IS due to the repairs needed to pass a Virginia state safety inspection. Items noted as needing attention include the windshield, parking brake adjustment, front CV axle boots, brakes, ball joints, and various suspension bushings, along with other miscellaneous maintenance items. As it sits, this truck could make a great off-road, farm, or work truck and is fully operational. However, to pass a Virginia safety inspection, these repairs would need to be completed. If your state does not require safety inspections, it is the buyer's responsibility to determine whether or not to complete these repairs. We are selling the truck with the Virginia inspection rejection based on the items listed above. Overall, the truck does not require an overwhelming amount of work. Most of the repairs are straightforward and could be handled by a backyard mechanic. To keep this truck priced affordably, we have chosen not to invest additional money into making the repairs and are offering it in its current condition. Price does not include $0 processing fee
