Dealer notes

The 2026 CFMOTO UFORCE U10 XL Pro is engineered to redefine what a utility side-by-side can achieve, blending rugged capability with a commanding design. Finished in a striking Black exterior, this powerhouse multi-passenger vehicle is built for those who demand both hard-working utility and a sophisticated look on the trail or the job site. As a premier choice for outdoor enthusiasts and professionals alike, this model stands out as a versatile workhorse ready to tackle demanding tasks and off-road adventures with absolute confidence. At the heart of this machine lies a high-performance 4-stroke 998cc 3-cylinder engine, delivering the reliable horsepower and smooth torque needed for heavy-duty hauling, transport, and navigating challenging terrain. This advanced multi-cylinder powerplant ensures responsive acceleration and consistent energy delivery, making it highly capable for both demanding workdays and weekend exploration. Designed to handle rugged environments, the powertrain provides the muscle required to conquer steep inclines and transport gear across diverse landscapes with ease. Inside the cabin, the premium styling continues with a refined Brown and Black Leather interior that elevates the overall riding experience. This eye-catching seating configuration ensures exceptional comfort for the driver and passengers alike, proving that a hardworking utility vehicle can also offer an upscale, comfortable environment. Combining brute strength, sophisticated styling, and interior refinement, the 2026 CFMOTO UFORCE U10 XL Pro is the ultimate companion for anyone seeking top-tier off-road capability without compromising on comfort.
