Dealer notes

Command the road and the job site with this rugged yet refined 2016 Ford F-150 4WD SuperCab 145" XL. Finished in a crisp Oxford White exterior and paired with an inviting Medium Light Camel interior, this versatile pickup delivers the ideal blend of practical durability and everyday functionality. Featuring the spacious SuperCab configuration on a 145-inch wheelbase, this F-150 provides ample cabin space for passengers or secured gear while maintaining a capable footprint built for work and daily driving alike. Under the hood, the advanced 2.7L V6 EcoBoost engine delivers impressive efficiency and responsive power, working seamlessly with a robust Four Wheel Drive drivetrain to tackle challenging weather and rough terrain. Designed to maximize your hauling capabilities, this truck comes equipped with the factory Trailer Tow Package for effortless towing. Further enhancing its utility, the integrated BoxLink cargo management system offers flexible tie-down options in the truck bed, ensuring your payload stays secure no matter the task. Inside, the driver-focused cabin is enhanced by the desirable Equipment Group 101A Mid, adding crucial power features and modern conveniences that elevate your daily driving experience. Complete with the California Emissions System, this capable 2016 Ford F-150 XL balances environmental compliance with uncompromising utility and strength. Whether you are searching for a dependable workhorse or a versatile 4WD truck for weekend adventures, this well-appointed F-150 is ready to deliver.
