Dealer notes

If you are looking for a heavy-duty truck that perfectly blends bold styling with workhorse capability, this 2013 Ram 2500 2WD Crew Cab 149" Tradesman is an outstanding choice. Clad in a striking Copperhead Pearl exterior paint, this pickup makes a powerful visual statement on the road and the job site alike. Inside, the spacious cab is appointed with a durable and functional Black/Diesel Gray interior, providing a comfortable and practical environment for both driver and passengers during long days on the road. Under the hood, this formidable truck is powered by the legendary 6.7L I6 Cummins Turbo Diesel engine, which delivers the immense torque and horsepower required for serious towing and payload duties. The 2WD powertrain configuration optimizes highway efficiency and driving dynamics, making it an ideal setup for transporting heavy loads over long distances. Engineered for durability, this 2013 Ram 2500 offers the uncompromising strength and mechanical reliability that heavy-duty truck buyers demand. In addition to its raw power, this Tradesman trim comes equipped with several highly desirable upgrades that enhance both utility and style. The exterior is elevated by the Chrome Appearance Group, while the innovative RamBox Cargo Management System offers secure, weatherproof storage built directly into the truck bed rails. Inside the cabin, you will enjoy the convenience of the Popular Equipment Group and the modern connectivity of the Uconnect 5.0 infotainment system. Ready to tackle your toughest tasks without sacrificing modern convenience, this 2013 Ram 2500 is a versatile, high-performing asset for any owner.
