Dealer notes

Elevate your neighborhood cruising and short-trip travels with the sophisticated 2025 STAR EV SIRIUS 2+2. This premium personal transportation vehicle blends eye-catching style with eco-conscious efficiency, featuring a striking Green exterior that perfectly complements its refined Beige interior. Designed for those who demand both elegance and utility, the SIRIUS 2+2 offers a spacious four-passenger configuration, making it the ultimate choice for family outings, gated community commuting, or stylish resort transit. Engineered for reliable, whisper-quiet performance, the electric drivetrain of the 2025 STAR EV SIRIUS 2+2 delivers smooth acceleration and clean, emission-free operation. Built with an advanced suspension system, this model ensures a remarkably comfortable and stable ride over various paved surfaces and golf course pathways. The versatile 2+2 seating configuration provides the perfect balance of utility, allowing you to easily transport extra passengers or adapt the vehicle for carrying extra gear and personal belongings. Inside, the premium Beige seating is crafted for comfort, offering ergonomic support and an intuitive dashboard layout that puts key controls and vehicle diagnostics right at your fingertips. Standard highlights on the 2025 STAR EV SIRIUS 2+2 include high-visibility LED lighting for enhanced safety during evening drives and a clear digital display to easily monitor your vehicle's status. Combining a classic Green aesthetic with modern electric capability, this vehicle represents the pinnacle of luxury personal transport—ready to upgrade your lifestyle.
