Dealer notes

2015 Freightliner M2 112 Western Hauler Conversion in superb condition. Powered by a Detroit DD13 engine with 505hp paired with an Allison 4000 automatic transmission, this hauler is built to perform while offering exceptional comfort and luxury. Recent maintenance and upgrades include new tires, new front shocks, Alcoa aluminum wheels, air-ride suspension, air-ride cab, air-ride seats, and a brand-new HERD Defender front bumper. It is also equipped with a TrailerSaver TSLB air-ride hitch, making it an outstanding choice for hauling large trailers with maximum comfort and stability. This Western Hauler is loaded with just about every available option, including dual DVD players, a Sony PlayStation, auxiliary heating and air conditioning for rear passengers, an Alpine touchscreen audio system with subwoofer, CB radio, and much more. It has been stored in a climate-controlled garage and has been meticulously maintained since new. This vehicle has been cared for with an open checkbook, and absolutely no expense has been spared on its maintenance or upkeep. The previous owner only parted with it after ordering three new hauler trucks. Coming from a family of horse enthusiasts, their vehicles have always been maintained to the highest possible standard, and it certainly shows with this truck. Please contact us with any questions. This is truly a truck that must be seen in person to fully appreciate its outstanding condition and level of care. Price does not include $0 processing fee
