Dealer notes

The 2014 Ford F-150 FX2 SuperCrew is a full-size pickup that delivers strong performance, everyday practicality, and the comfort of a spacious crew cab layout. Powered by a capable 3.5-liter V6 engine producing 365 horsepower and 420 lb-ft of torque, this F-150 offers impressive acceleration and solid hauling strength while maintaining the smooth, dependable performance Ford trucks are known for. Paired with an automatic transmission and rear-wheel drive, it provides a confident and comfortable ride for both daily driving and work-related use. With 183,030 miles, this truck continues to reflect the durability, capability, and versatility that have made the F-150 one of America's most trusted pickups. The FX2 trim adds a sportier character to the F-150's bold pickup design, while the SuperCrew cab provides generous interior space for passengers and everyday comfort. Its roomy cabin and functional bed make it well suited for work, commuting, or weekend projects, giving drivers the flexibility expected from a full-size truck. Combining strong V6 power, a spacious crew cab configuration, and the proven reputation of the F-150, the 2014 Ford F-150 FX2 is a well-rounded pickup ready for its next owner.
