Dealer notes

Build the ultimate commercial tool with this versatile 2019 Ford Transit Chassis T-250 SRW. Finished in a clean Oxford White exterior, this commercial chassis cab offers the ideal foundation for businesses looking to construct a custom work vehicle tailored precisely to their operational needs. Featuring a 138" wheelbase and a Single Rear Wheel (SRW) configuration, this T-250 platform strikes the perfect balance between urban maneuverability and heavy-duty utility, making it an outstanding choice for contractors, service professionals, and fleet managers alike. Under the hood, the dependable 3.7L Ti-VCT V6 engine provides the reliable horsepower and torque required to tackle demanding daily work schedules. Rated at a robust 9,000 lbs. GVWR (Gross Vehicle Weight Rating), this chassis cab delivers impressive structural load capacity to support specialized service bodies, flatbeds, or custom upfits. Its engineered frame ensures stable highway cruising and confident handling, giving you the capability needed to haul tools, gear, and heavy payloads directly to the job site. Inside, the functional cabin features a Charcoal Black interior designed for durability, ease of maintenance, and daily driver comfort. The driver-focused cabin environment is built to withstand the rigors of commercial application while providing a practical, comfortable workstation on the road. Practical, hard-working, and ready to be tailored to your exact business requirements, this 2019 Ford Transit Chassis T-250 SRW is an exceptional investment to power your fleet forward.
