Dealer notes

Turn heads everywhere you go in this absolutely charming 1931 Ford Model A finished in a striking two-tone Verde green-blue with elegant black trim. A true icon of American automotive history, this beautiful two-door classic captures the spirit of the early motoring era while offering dependable drivability and timeless appeal. This Model A rides proudly on wide whitewall spoke tires that perfectly complement its vintage styling and commanding presence. Under the hood, this beauty is running strong and is mechanically sound, making it an enjoyable classic for cruise-ins, weekend drives, parades, or collection display. Inside, you'll find a rich espresso interior that pairs beautifully with the exterior color combination. The leather top remains in great condition with no rips or tears, reflecting the care this vehicle has received throughout the years. The chrome accents, classic lines, and unmistakable stance make this Ford A a true standout wherever it goes. Please note there is some minor spiderweb cracking present on the passenger side, consistent with age and preservation of a true vintage automobile. This classic comes with a clean North Carolina title and is proudly offered by Carolina Classic Cars.
