Dealer notes

2008 BMW M3 Coupe – ESS Supercharged – 625 HP 2008 BMW M3 finished in Alpine White, currently protected with Liquid Silver Matte PPF and ceramic coating, over a Black interior. This E92 M3 has been extensively upgraded with an ESS 625 HP supercharger system, premium suspension, braking, exhaust, and carbon fiber components while retaining a strong list of desirable factory options. The ESS 625 HP supercharger system transforms the high-revving V8 while the Eisenmann/Gintani exhaust setup, Moton Club Sports coilovers, StopTech big brakes, Volk TE37 wheels, and R888R tires create a well-rounded performance package. The Liquid Silver Matte PPF gives the car a completely different appearance while protecting the Alpine White paint underneath, with ceramic coating providing an additional layer of protection and easier maintenance. A heavily upgraded E92 M3 combining the character of BMW's naturally aspirated V8 platform with substantially increased performance and a carefully selected list of supporting modifications.
