Dealer notes

The 2004 Chevrolet Suburban LS is a full-size SUV built to deliver strong V8 performance, generous interior space, and the kind of versatility that makes it well suited for family use, road trips, towing, and everyday driving. Powered by a 5.3-liter V8 engine producing 295 horsepower and 330 lb-ft of torque, this Suburban provides confident acceleration and the strength expected from a traditional body-on-frame SUV. Paired with an automatic transmission and rear-wheel drive, it offers a smooth and composed driving experience with plenty of capability for longer trips and daily use. With 147,233 miles, this Suburban continues to offer the durability, space, and practicality that have made the model a longtime favorite among full-size SUV buyers. The LS trim provides a comfortable and functional interior with generous passenger room and extensive cargo capacity, making it an excellent choice for larger families or anyone who needs substantial space. Its classic four-door design, strong V8 engine, and large 31-gallon fuel tank make it especially well suited for extended travel and utility-focused use. Combining proven Chevrolet truck-based engineering, V8 power, and exceptional interior versatility, the 2004 Chevrolet Suburban LS remains a capable and practical full-size SUV ready for its next owner.
