Dealer notes

Experience the ultimate blend of rugged western heritage and modern sophistication with the stunning 2025 Toyota Tundra 1794 Edition CrewMax 5.5' Bed. Draped in a commanding Magnetic Gray Metallic exterior and paired with a premium Saddle Tan interior, this truck makes an undeniable statement on the road. The exclusive 1794 grade package pays homage to legendary Texas ranching heritage, delivering an upscale aesthetic that elevates this pickup far beyond the ordinary. For buyers seeking a vehicle that seamlessly transitions from executive commuting to weekend adventures, this highly sought-after model offers the perfect balance of premium style and uncompromising presence. Under the hood, this 2025 Toyota Tundra is powered by a potent 3.4L 6 Cylinders engine, engineered to deliver the strength needed for confident towing, hauling, and highway passing. Combined with an advanced Four Wheel Drive (4WD) system, this CrewMax is fully equipped to conquer challenging terrains, muddy trails, and inclement weather conditions with ease. The highly functional 5.5-foot bed is protected by a factory-installed, non-skid spray-on bed liner (tms) to safeguard your investment against scratches and cargo shifting, while added wheel locks (tms) provide extra security for your premium wheels. Inside the spacious cabin, exceptional comfort and cutting-edge technology take center stage. Entering and exiting this elevated truck is effortless thanks to the convenient power running boards that deploy automatically as you open the doors. Once behind the wheel, the advanced head up display (hud) projects vital driving information directly onto the windshield, allowing you to keep your eyes safely on the road ahead. Surrounded by the warmth of the Saddle Tan interior and the unmatched refinement of the 1794 grade package, every journey feels first-class. Combining robust utility with executive-level comfort, the 2025 Toyota Tundra is the complete premium truck package you have been searching for.
