Dealer notes

If you are looking for a reliable powerhouse to anchor your commercial fleet, this 2014 Ford Econoline Commercial Cutaway E-450 Super Duty 176" DRW is the ideal foundation. Engineered to handle demanding vocational applications, this commercial cutaway offers a highly versatile starting point for a wide range of custom body upfits, from box trucks to utility vehicles. Finished in professional Oxford White, this dual-rear-wheel (DRW) workhorse represents a dependable investment for businesses requiring a heavy-duty platform that is built to perform. Under the hood, this 2014 Ford Econoline Commercial Cutaway E-450 Super Duty is equipped with a robust 5.4L 2V FFV Triton V8 engine, delivering proven 8-cylinder power and durability. Power is sent to the pavement via a Rear Wheel Drive (RWD) system, which benefits from a heavy-duty 4.56 axle ratio designed to optimize low-end torque and towing efficiency under heavy loads. The dual rear wheel configuration provides the necessary stability, traction, and payload capacity to confidently transport substantial cargo or equipment day in and day out. Inside, the cabin is designed with driver productivity in mind, featuring a functional Medium Flint interior and essential air conditioning to keep the cabin comfortable during long shifts on the road. This vehicle is spec'ed with order code 782a, offering a straightforward, business-first layout that prioritizes ease of operation and upfit integration. Whether you are expanding a delivery service, utility fleet, or specialty transport operation, this E-450 Super Duty delivers the strength, capability, and proven reliability your business demands.
