Dealer notes

1971 Ford Mustang Mach 1 - Fully Restored, Powerful, and Absolutely Stunning This 1971 Ford Mustang Mach 1 is a beautifully restored classic that turns heads from every angle. The body, paint, and interior all present exceptionally well, showcasing the quality of the restoration and the care this car has received. Under the hood sits the legendary 351 Cleveland, known for its power, sound, and reliability. This engine runs strong and sounds remarkable, delivering that unmistakable classic-muscle rumble. Paired with a 4-speed manual transmission, this Mach 1 gives you the true, raw driving experience enthusiasts look for - responsive, powerful, and incredibly fun to drive. The car's stance, lines, and overall presence make it a standout example of early-'70s Mustang performance. Whether you're a collector, a weekend cruiser, or someone who appreciates a properly restored muscle car, this Mach 1 is the kind of vehicle that impresses in person. Shown by appointment only.
