Dealer notes

The 2017 Hyundai Tucson Sport is a stylish, well-rounded compact SUV that blends sporty design cues with everyday practicality — think sharper exterior lines, larger wheels, and dual exhaust tips paired with a comfortable, upscale-feeling interior. The Sport trim adds a peppier turbocharged engine option, firmer suspension tuning and nicer finishes, plus convenience and tech features such as a touchscreen infotainment system with Apple CarPlay/Android Auto compatibility and helpful safety aids like blind-spot monitoring and rear cross-traffic alert. It delivers a smooth, composed ride, good fuel economy for the class, generous cargo space and a strong value proposition, making it a smart, fun-to-drive choice for commuters and small families alike.
