Dealer notes

Looking for a premium SUV experience without the premium price tag? Ohio Motor Group has you covered with this 2018 Chevrolet Equinox Premier. Yes, it has seen some highway pavement. Okay, it has seen a lot of highway pavement. Let's just say this Equinox has more experience than a third-term politician, but that just means it already knows the way to work, the grocery store, and the drive-thru window without you even having to steer. Because of those well-traveled miles, we have slashed the price to a moving-day-ready $11,980. This is the top-tier Premier trim, meaning you get the fancy leather seats, upgraded tech, and premium comfort that usually costs a fortune, all for the price of a standard commuter hatchback. Under the hood sits a fuel-sipping 1.5L Turbo engine that saves you cash at the pump while the low price tag keeps your monthly payments small enough to blend in with your streaming subscriptions. If you want a dependable, fully loaded SUV that qualifies for a genuinely great low payment, stop by Ohio Motor Group Steubenville today before someone else realizes what a steal this is.
