Dealer notes

This 1979 Dodge Sportsman Van B200 comes finished in tan with eye-catching blue striping along the sides and hood, and a matching decal on the rear. Step inside and you'll find a van that has clearly been cherished over the years, with a red-patterned cloth interior and plush carpeting throughout. Custom woodwork adds a warm, personal touch, and the built-in bed makes this Sportsman just as ready for a weekend getaway as it is for cruising. There's no rust to be found anywhere, and it rolls on 15" wheels with factory wheel covers, giving it just the right stance. The original paint still holds a rich shine, showing only a few signs of age. Under the hood is a 318 CID V8 (5.2L) engine mated to a 4-speed manual transmission. The undercarriage is solid, a true testament to how well this van has been maintained. Options include heat and A/C, a Kenwood AM/FM stereo with a cassette player, and a trailer hitch, among others. On the road, this Sportsman doesn't disappoint - it accelerates with ease, shifts effortlessly, and delivers a smooth ride. Overall, it is a rare find in exceptional condition. Whether you're taking it out for a leisurely cruise or parking it riverside for a relaxing afternoon, this 1979 Dodge Sportsman Van B200 is ready to deliver good times for years to come.
