Dealer notes

Elevate your daily drive with this exceptional, Carfax 1-Owner 2024 Polestar 2 Long Range Dual Motor. Dressed in a sophisticated gray exterior that perfectly complements its sleek, minimalist Scandinavian design, this modern fastback turns heads while offering the peace of mind that comes with a clean, single-owner vehicle history. Inside, the refined black interior creates a serene, driver-focused cabin crafted with premium, sustainable materials. This pristine electric vehicle represents the perfect blend of cutting-edge automotive styling and modern luxury, making it an incredibly attractive choice for discerning EV buyers. Beneath its sculpted exterior lies an advanced, pure-electric powertrain engineered for exhilarating performance. Armed with the Long Range Dual Motor configuration and an intelligent All Wheel Drive (AWD) system, this 2024 Polestar 2 delivers instantaneous torque and confidence-inspiring traction in all driving conditions. Operating with zero engine cylinders, this fully electric vehicle offers a remarkably quiet, smooth, and highly efficient ride without sacrificing dynamic handling. Whether you are navigating wet city streets or cruising on the open highway, the robust dual-motor setup ensures responsive power delivery and effortless acceleration. Inside the cabin, the 2024 Polestar 2 Long Range Dual Motor surrounds you with intuitive technology and thoughtful comfort. The centerpiece of the interior is the seamless Google built-in infotainment system, providing effortless navigation, voice-activated controls, and app integration directly through the crisp center touchscreen. Coupled with supportive seating and a clean, clutter-free dashboard layout, the interior is designed to reduce driver distraction and maximize comfort. Do not miss the opportunity to own this highly desirable, single-owner electric vehicle that beautifully merges sustainable innovation with premium performance.
