Featuring the highly desirable 6-speed manual transmission, Competition Package, M Carbon Ceramic Brakes, and Executive Package, this F80 M3 combines outstanding factory equipment with approximately $15,000 invested in premium aftermarket enhancements. Under the hood sits BMW's renowned 3.0-liter S55 twin-turbocharged inline-six producing 444 factory horsepower with the Competition Package. Paired with a 6-speed manual transmission and rear-wheel drive, this M3 delivers an engaging driving experience with exceptional throttle response, precise handling, and unmistakable BMW M character. What truly sets this example apart is its carefully selected collection of performance and aesthetic upgrades. The suspension has been upgraded with KW Variant 3 adjustable coilovers, providing enhanced chassis control and customizable handling characteristics. A set of lightweight APEX ARC-8 wheels complements the suspension setup, creating a purposeful and aggressive stance. The exterior features a comprehensive selection of carbon fiber aerodynamic components, including RKP GT4 carbon brake cooling ducts, a PSM carbon fiber rear diffuser, Extreme Power House carbon fiber side skirts, front bumper splitters, M Performance carbon fiber mirror caps, and an M Performance carbon fiber rear spoiler. Additional exterior enhancements include GTS-style taillights and IND painted side markers, bringing a distinctive motorsport-inspired appearance to the already aggressive F80 platform. Inside, the striking Sakhir Orange and Black Full Merino Leather cabin is complemented by M Performance Alcantara armrest and parking brake enhancements. The Executive Package adds premium conveniences including a Head-Up Display, heated steering wheel, heated rear seats, and advanced parking assistance. The desirable M Carbon Ceramic Braking System, originally a substantial factory option, further enhances the M3's performance credentials with exceptional braking capability. A ceramic coating completes the exterior protection and finishing package, helping preserve the vibrant Sakhir Orange Metallic finish. With its rare combination of a 6-speed manual transmission, Competition Package, carbon ceramic brakes, distinctive factory colors, and approximately $15,000 in upgrades, this BMW M3 represents an outstanding opportunity for the driving enthusiast.
