Source: Edmunds * Redesigned for 2015 is the iconic Dodge Charger. Charger's silhouette has always been distinct, one look at the new Charger and there's no doubt who and where this evolution came from. Front to rear, nearly every piece of sheet metal is carefully recrafted for a striking, muscular look, starting with new projector headlamps, LED lighting, and the signature split crosshair grille. In the rear a new three-piece low profile spoiler enhances the athletic lines of this muscular beast while full-width racetrack LED taillamp gives a lasting impression to those left in your wake. Inside, performance seats are designed to hold you firmly in place while the available hea
