Dealer notes

The 2020 Dodge Durango GT AWD in DB Black is a striking SUV that seamlessly combines power, style, and technology. Its sleek exterior is painted in a deep DB Black, giving it a commanding presence on the road. The bold character is further enhanced by its aerodynamic body and contemporary design elements, making it a perfect choice for those who love a vehicle with both aesthetic and functional appeal. Inside, the Durango GT AWD offers a sophisticated ambiance with its black leather-faced bucket seats, providing both comfort and durability for everyday driving or long journeys. The spacious interior is thoughtfully designed, featuring advanced technology like the rear DVD entertainment center, which ensures passengers in the back remain entertained on longer trips. At the front, drivers and passengers can enjoy the intuitive Uconnect 4C NAV system with an 8.4" display, offering seamless navigation and connectivity options. To top it off, the power sunroof allows you to bring the outside in, enhancing the feeling of openness within the car. Under the hood, the Durango is powered by a robust 3.6L V6 engine, ensuring a dynamic driving experience with its smooth power delivery and efficient performance. This engine is paired with an All-Wheel-Drive drivetrain, which provides excellent traction and stability in diverse driving conditions, from city streets to country roads. Whether you're navigating urban environments or embarking on weekend getaways, the 2020 Dodge Durango GT AWD in DB Black proves to be a versatile and stylish SUV ready for any adventure.
