Dealer notes

RIPP Supercharger !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! RIPP Supercharger Horsepower Gains on Jeep JK The RIPP Supercharger for the 2015-2018 Jeep Wrangler JK/JKU is designed to significantly boost the stock 3.6L Pentastar engine's output, with dyno-tested gains of up to 325 wheel horsepower (WHP) and 300 ft-lbs of torque on 37-inch tires RIPP Superchargers. Stock vs. RIPP Performance Stock 3.6L Pentastar: Around 189 WHP in stock form, dropping further with larger wheels and tires RIPP Superchargers. With RIPP Supercharger: +136 WHP and +111 ft-lbs of torque, bringing total WHP to 325 RIPP Superchargers. This is more power than a 5.7L HEMI swap without the cost, and comparable to a 6.4L HEMI swap in terms of output RIPP Superchargers. Additional Benefits Improved throttle response and better towing capability due to increased airflow and torque RubiTrux. Better driveability across climates and altitudes, with tuning for heat, cold, and high-altitude conditions RIPP Superchargers. Some owners report 1-4 mpg gains in combined city/hwy driving RIPP Superchargers. Real-World Feedback Owners on JK-Forum.com and Wrangler forums note strong highway passing, hill climbs, and towing performance, with one user describing the Jeep "responding very well" on climbs and even "putting them back in the seat" when accelerating JK-Forum.
