Dealer notes

The 2020 Mercedes-Benz Sprinter Cargo Van 4500 High Roof V6 170" Extended RWD is a remarkable embodiment of utility and luxury, engineered meticulously to cater to both your business and personal transportation needs. Coated in an elegant shade of gray, the van exudes a professional and polished exterior that perfectly complements its robust functionality. The expansive 170" extended wheelbase and high roof design maximize cargo space, making it a versatile choice for those who need to transport large or numerous items efficiently. Inside, the van boasts a sleek and sophisticated black interior that mirrors Mercedes-Benz's commitment to luxury and comfort. Ergonomically designed seats ensure that driver fatigue is minimized, even on long hauls, while intuitive controls make navigating the vehicle's various features a breeze. With a 3.0L V6 engine under the hood, the Sprinter provides a powerful yet smooth driving experience, ensuring reliable performance no matter the load or distance. The rear-wheel-drive system, along with dual rear wheels (DRW), further enhances stability and traction, allowing the van to handle various terrains with ease. This setup is particularly advantageous for transporting heavy cargo, as it offers improved weight distribution and balance. Whether used for business logistics or personal projects, the 2020 Sprinter Cargo Van is a steadfast partner, combining Mercedes-Benz's signature engineering excellence with unparalleled flexibility and convenience.
