Dealer notes

Ready for work or weekend projects, this 2019 Nissan Frontier SV King Cab offers a versatile extended-cab layout paired with a practical six-foot cargo bed. Engineered with a sturdy, fully boxed ladder-type frame and an efficient 2.5-liter 4-cylinder engine mated to a smooth 5-speed automatic transmission, this rear-wheel-drive pickup delivers dependable daily utility and responsive handling. Its rugged exterior is finished with 16-inch aluminum-alloy wheels, dual power heated outside mirrors, a sliding rear window, and a lockable tailgate with a built-in spoiler. Inside the cabin, the King Cab design features wide-opening rear access doors and forward-facing rear flip-up seats that easily convert the back area into secure, weather-protected interior cargo space. The SV trim elevates everyday comfort with supportive cloth bucket seats, a fold-flat front passenger seat for hauling longer items inside, air conditioning, and a tilt-adjustable steering column with illuminated audio and cruise controls. Power windows with driver one-touch auto-down, power door locks, and remote keyless entry provide effortless convenience every time you step up to the truck. Technology and safety are seamlessly integrated through a 7.0-inch color touchscreen display paired with a standard RearView Monitor to make backing up and hitching simple. Stay connected on the road using the Bluetooth hands-free phone system, streaming audio, Siri Eyes Free, and a convenient USB port. Built with Nissan's Zone Body construction, this Frontier also equips you with Vehicle Dynamic Control, a traction control system, active brake limited slip, four-wheel anti-lock disc brakes, and a comprehensive airbag system for added peace of mind on every drive.
