Dealer notes

Dominating both the open highway and the most punishing off-road trails, this 2013 Ford F-150 4WD SuperCrew 145" SVT Raptor represents the pinnacle of high-performance pickup trucks. Cloaked in a sinister Tuxedo Black Metallic exterior with a matching, premium Black interior, this aggressive off-road machine commands attention wherever it goes. Designed by Ford's Special Vehicle Team, this SuperCrew cab configuration blends unmistakable wide-body styling with the everyday practicality of a spacious cabin, making it the ultimate find for truck enthusiasts who refuse to compromise on presence or capability. At the heart of this 2013 Ford F-150 SVT Raptor is a formidable 6.2L 8-cylinder engine, delivering the massive horsepower and torque required to conquer challenging terrain. Paired with a robust Four Wheel Drive (4WD) system, this powertrain is specifically engineered to handle deep sand, rocky trails, and muddy paths with absolute confidence. The specialized SVT-tuned suspension provides incredible wheel travel and high-speed off-road stability, while still maintaining a controlled and comfortable ride on paved roads, proving that extreme utility and high-octane performance can coexist perfectly. Beyond its rugged exterior and raw performance, this SVT Raptor is loaded with premium amenities that elevate your daily drive. The interior is outfitted with the luxury equipment group and the plus package, offering an upscale cabin environment that keeps you comfortable on long journeys. You can enjoy the open air with the power moonroof, and navigate tight spaces or off-road obstacles with ease using the integrated front and rear view camera system. Complete with a highly functional tailgate step for easy cargo bed access, this 2013 Ford F-150 4WD SuperCrew SVT Raptor is the complete package of brute force, refined comfort, and unmatched utility.
