Dealer notes

This 2013 Honda Ridgeline Sport 4WD is powered by Honda's dependable 3.5L V6 engine paired with a smooth automatic transmission, delivering plenty of power for towing, hauling, and everyday driving. Finished in a clean white exterior with a gray interior, this four-door pickup offers a unique blend of truck capability and SUV-like comfort. Features include four-wheel drive, alloy wheels, keyless entry, cruise control, Bluetooth connectivity, and Honda's innovative dual-action tailgate with the lockable in-bed trunk for added convenience. The Ridgeline is also capable of towing up to 5,000 pounds, making it a versatile choice for work or recreation. Known for its comfortable ride and exceptional reliability, the Ridgeline stands apart from traditional midsize trucks thanks to its unibody construction and spacious cabin. The white exterior paired with the gray interior gives this truck a timeless appearance, while the roomy rear seating and clever storage solutions make it ideal for family trips, job sites, or weekend adventures.
